

Reaching College Students

Max Barnett

I. Introduction.

- A. If we do not reach our college students, we will lose our nation.
- B. The goal is to reach nonbelievers and disciple believers.

II. The best way of reaching a college student is a special type of Christian student who seeks to fulfill the Great Commission.

III. Reasons that Baptist students struggle in college.

- A. They were never taught about personal evangelism.
- B. The family that one was raised in was not very strong.

IV. How to respond.

- A. Connect your students to a campus BSU.
- B. Check up on your students.

V. Evangelism demands a heart change. (Colossians 1:28-29)

VI. We have separated the method of evangelism from the method, and we will reap sparingly because of it. (II Corinthians 9:6)

Application questions:

1. Why is it important to find the right kind of student to reach other students for Christ?

2. What are some other reasons that a Baptist student might struggle in college?

3. What are some creative ways you can get students engaged in evangelism? Explain.
