

Trapped by Circumstances

John Hunter

I. Introduction.

A. The Scriptures are given so that we might be adequate. (2 Timothy 3:16)

B. Text: Habakkuk.

C. Outline.

1. Watch and see. (Habakkuk 1)

2. Stand and see. (Habakkuk 2)

3. Kneel and see. (Habakkuk 3)

D. We can move from being trapped by circumstances to overcoming circumstances.

II. We need to find adequacy in the Word in the face of tragedy.

III. The just will live by his faith. (Romans 1:16)

A. There is two sides to salvation: the saving death of Christ and the saving life of Christ.

B. We come to the cross as sinners which qualifies us to go to heaven as forgiven. This is the act of salvation.

C. The life of Christ enables us to live presently through the indwelling Christ. This is the activity of salvation. (Romans 5:10)

Application questions:

1. What is your plan for getting into the Bible and learning the Scriptures?

2. How is faith the medicine for troubling situations?

3. What are the two sides of salvation? Explain.
