

Questions and Answers – Part 1

Gene Warr

I. Introduction.

II. Keep your life in balance by knowing your priorities: God, family, work, ministry, recreation. (John 3)

III. When you are brought to the place to cry for people, that is God-given.

IV. God can rescue a troubled marriage if the heart is willing. (Proverbs 4:23)

V. God is not trying to hide his will from us. We find out God's way is best when we make the wrong decisions. God knows what is best for us. (Jeremiah 29:11; Ephesians 1:8)

VI. We need to have accountability with a group of guys.

VII. God can speak to us in or out of context. We should be in the Bible every day.

VIII. Bonds of lust can be broken by taking positive steps, guarding what you hear and guarding what you see. Substitute your thought life with the Word of God. (Ephesians 5)

IX. It is a bad deal to have wives work. Economically it is tough.

X. To eliminate bad characteristics in your life, just quiet them.

XI. Unforgiving spirits lead to dangerous bitterness. (Hebrews 13:15)

XII. Exercise patience for your kids in their teenage years.

XIII. Consider Jesus to enjoy his love for you. (2 Corinthians 5:17-18, 14)

XIV. God intends for kids to learn discipline at home.

XV. If a kid says he wants to receive Jesus, do not stand in the way.

XVI. To gain a servant's heart, do what Jesus says.

XVII. Build better relationships by serving people. (1 Corinthians 12:15)

XVIII. God gave you exactly what you need. (Psalm 139)

Application questions:

1. Which question and answer did you find most valuable?

2. Which question might you have answered differently?

3. What lingering questions do you have? What are some good resources you can use to find out more?
