

Committed to Spiritual Generations

Lorne Sanny

I. Introduction.

II. Psalm 78: the “what” and the “why” of commitment to generations.

A. That each generation might set their hope in God.

1. They were to put their hope in nothing temporal. (Psalm 73:25)

2. God is the one holding and guiding us. (Psalm 49:15)

B. That each generation might remember what God did.

1. His great acts are creation and redemption. (Revelation 4:11, 5:9)

2. The response was to be worship and obedience.

III. Isaiah 59:29: the “how” of the commitment to generations.

A. The Spirit of God uses the Word of God through the mouths of men.

IV. Matthew 28:20: Jesus commanded it.

V. John 17:20: Jesus prayed for it.

VI. 2 Timothy 2:2: Paul explained it.

A. It requires faithful men.

B. When you look for the one in the many and invest in him, you get it.

C. The aim is to develop evangelists, disciple-makers, and leaders.

Application questions.

1. Why should we commit to building spiritual generations?

---

---

2. How should we commit to building Spiritual generations?

---

---

3. What can you do this week to pass on the spiritual torch to the next generation?

---

---