

Choose You This Day

John Hunter

I. Introduction.

- A. Text: Joshua 23.
- B. Everything we have has come through the mighty hand of God.
- C. We should serve the Lord as a result of counting our blessings.

II. We will all serve someone.

- A. Some Christians go back to the old life.
- B. Christians need to make a real choice to be involved with Jesus Christ.

III. We cannot impress God by enthusiasm only.

- A. There is nothing in us to earn God's love.
- B. God loves us because he is love and for Jesus' sake.

IV. God is holy—we must not take the responsibility to serve God light-heartedly. (Isaiah 6)

- A. God does not want our big words—he wants our broken will.
- B. God can do nothing with us without obedience.

V. It might be time for you to “choose this day”—allow God to speak to you and write your commitment down.

Application questions:

1. What does serving God involve?

2. How seriously have you taken your responsibility to serve God?

3. How might your life look different if you take God's call to serve him more seriously? Explain.
