

Rebellion

John Hunter

I. Introduction.

A. Rebellion began with Satan seeking independence from God.

B. Our planet has been invaded.

C. We do not need to defend the Bible--we only need to expose people's hearts to truth. While the work of researches like Henry Morris and creation research is helpful, we do not all need to be experts.

D. Only love satisfies God. If we love God we will do everything we can to satisfy him. Love frees a person from fear. God gave man the freedom to love him with the tree of choice in Genesis 2.

E. In chapter 3 the Devil invades earth and hurts God by getting his children to rebel.

II. The Devil's tactics.

A. God designed woman to come along and help man realize his full potential.

B. The Devil takes a woman's purpose and twists it to make her a burden.

C. The Devil always begins by casting doubt on God's Word. A denial follows.

III. The Devil's truth.

IV. The Devil's temptation.

Application questions:

1. How is the Word of God sufficient for conversion? Explain.

2. What happens if God starts taking a secondary place in the lives of believers?

3. What are some ways we can secure our commitment to God's Word in the midst of the Devil's attacks? Explain.
