

Going On From Here

Lorne Sanny

I. Introduction.

A. God has promised to give men. (Isaiah 43:4)

B. Review and application of previous principles.

II. 2 Timothy 2:15—Is the Lord well pleased? Is the work well done? Is the Word well used? (Hendricks)

III. Resources for proclamation of the gospel. (Matthew 12:1) (Eims)

A. The Spirit.

B. The Word of God.

C. Prayer.

D. A transformed life.

E. The fellowship of likeminded believers.

IV. How to develop your walk with God. (Hendricks)

A. Walk worthy in accordance with your calling.

B. Walk not as the Gentiles walk.

C. Walk in love.

D. Walk as children of light.

E. Walk circumspectly.

V. The president's message.

A. The text: 1 Corinthians 15:58.

B. Theme: going on from here.

C. Success is never final. Failure is never fatal. It is courage that counts.

1. We should have an attitude of watching what God does instead of trying to control things.

2. May we have an attitude of expectancy toward what God will do.

3. Our trials bring us hope. (Romans 5)
4. Courage counts—it is a mental willingness to do.
5. Hang in there. (2 Timothy)
6. We cannot condone self-pity. We are to be steadfast and unmovable always abounding in God's work because our labor is not in vain in the Lord. (1 Corinthians 15:58)

D. Conclusion.

Application questions

1. Why does courage count? In what ways have you seen it pay off for others? In what ways have you seen it pay off for you?

---

---

2. How is it that trials can be said to produce hope?

---

---

3. Explain why we can confidently say that our work in the Lord is not in vain.

---

---