

Corn of Wheat

Gene Warr

I. Introduction.

A. If you are not expecting anything from God, you will not get anything.

B. Text: John 12:24.

II. Except a corn of wheat fall in the ground and die, it abides alone.

A. Decisions for discipleship are individual decisions and not group decisions. (Luke 4:23; Revelation 3:20)

B. Jesus realized the infinite worth of the individual. (Luke 15; John 3:16; 1 Thessalonians 2:11)

III. Spiritual reproduction only takes one person investing his life in another. It is the greatest opportunity available to the Christian.

Application questions:

1. What are some ways Jesus demonstrated the worth of the individual?

2. How is the worth of the individual realized in discipleship?

3. What can you do to invest your life in another? Explain.
