

Supporting Your Husband in the Ministry

Irma Warr

I. Introduction.

II. Pray for him.

- A. Pray for him in the ministry.
- B. Pray through Scriptures for him.
- C. Pray for your marriage.

III. Realize your ministry.

- A. Be a wife and homemaker.
- B. Support him in his ministry.
- C. Make sure your husband is free to bring ministry into his home.

IV. Keep communications open.

- A. Be interested in his work.
- B. Be cheerful when he comes home.
- C. Set aside time to talk and give undivided attention.
- D. Be sensitive not to talk too much at the wrong time.

V. Make home the place he loves to come to most.

VI. Give him time to unwind.

VII. Be a good homemaker.

VIII. Be content.

IX. Make yourself look attractive. (Proverbs 14:1)

Application questions:

1. What are some areas you can grow in as a wife supporting your husband's ministry?

2. How can you continue to love your husband even when he is not meeting your expectations?

3. What is your practical and measurable plan for growth as a wife? Explain.
